Gift Aid

With Gift Aid, any donations you make will be worth 25% more at no extra cost to you.

Yes, I am happy for all gifts of money that I have made to Actors' Trust in the past four years and all future gifts of money that I make to be Gift Aid donations.

You must be a UK taxpayer and understand that if you pay less Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax in the current tax year than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all of your donations across all Charities, it is your responsibility to pay any difference.

Please notify the charity if you:

- want to cancel this declaration
- change your name or home address
- no longer pay sufficient tax on your income and/or capital gains

If you pay Income Tax at the higher or additional rate and want to receive the additional tax relief due to you, you must include all your Gift Aid donations on your Self-Assessment tax return or ask HM Revenue and Customs to adjust your tax code.

Actors' Trust reclaims 25p for every £1 you donate from the tax you pay for the current tax year. If you change your name, address or tax status, do let us know.

Membership Code of Conduct

Updated: February 2023

We have expectations of Actors' Trust members who are effectively ambassadors to identify potential new beneficiaries, new sources of funding and to identify new ways of meeting the evolving needs of members of the acting and stage management community facing hardship. These expectations are particularly so now that the Actors' Trust looks to involve more members as volunteers in both the governance and activity of the charity.

As a member we ask that you:

- Act in the best interests of the Actors' Trust and its current and potential beneficiary community
- Uphold and defend our vision, mission, and values.
- Promote equality, diversity and inclusion in the acting and stage professions, and treat others with respect, including current and potential beneficiaries and all Actors' Trusts' employees.
- Not disclose confidential information received during the Annual General Meeting, committee meetings, or in any other Actors' Trusts' meetings or communications.
- Immediately inform the chief executive or an officer of the Actors' Trust in the event of allegations that would reasonably be considered of concern from a safeguarding perspective or of criminal behaviour, or criminal proceedings or allegations pertinent to the Actors' Trust's community.
- Keep the Actors' Trust informed of your current contact details.
